Jake Daubert, of Brooklyn, made seven hits in his first eleven times at bat, and yet somebody has said the Superbas need one or two good batters.

Several Chicago players believe that Jimmy Sheckard, sold to St. Louis, will lead the Cardinals ultimately, if he does not succeed Miller Huggins as manager before this season ends. They say that Mrs. Britton claimed the veteran outfielder for the waiver price with that end in view. The same thing was mentioned when Murphy signed Roger Bresnahan, but whether the change will ever come remains to be seen. One of Sheckard's former team mates is quoted as saying:

WILLIAMS OUTPLAYS TOUCHARD ON COURTS

Harvard Player Seems Certain of a Place on International Team.

English "Pro" Displays Perfect Form in Defeating Dean Mathey at West Side Lawn Tennis Club.

Williams, the young Harvard player, yes-terday defeated Gustave F. Touchard at 6-1, 8-6 on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club, at 238th street and Broadway, and thereby settled himself a trifle more solidly into a position on the Amercan international team.

Touchard was clearly outplayed. The old wizard trotted out all of his tricks in the way of slanting smashes, delayed changes of pace and direction, but Williams met each shift and turned it to his own advantage. He completely disarmed all criticism to the effect that Touchard was not receiving the consideration he deserved by the international committee as a possible contender against the Australians in the Davis cup matches.

While this singles contest provided the feature of the day devoted to test trials for players who are likely to get places on the American team, it did not m lize the stage by any means. Charles E Haggett, the English professional, took on Dean Mathey, the former Princeton champion, for a set, in which the Britisher cored easily at 6-1. The perfect body balance of the Englishman, who is to have a hand in the training of the American international players, and his wonderful smashing and volleying at top speed, made him the superior of Mathey at every point.

Then Harold H. Hackett, the former ational champion, paired with Walter Merrill Hall against Williams and Watson M. Washburn, the Harvard pair. This battle in doubles was desperately fought through three sets, Hackett and Hall starting slovenly, but finishing brilliantly was another impromptu doubles, in which Haggett, the professional, paired with Robert Le Roy against Raymond D.
